2018 Coos County State of Oregon
Second Amendment Sanctuary Ordinance

SECTION 1. TITLE

The title of this ordinance shall be known as the "Second Amendment Sanctuary Ordinance," or "SASO."

SECTION 2. FINDINGS

The people of Coos County Oregon find and declare:

- A. Acting through the United States Constitution, the people created government to be their agent in the exercise of a few defined powers, while reserving the citizen's right to decide on matters, which concern their lives, liberties, and properties in the ordinary course of affairs;
- B. The Second Amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America states, "A well-regulated Militia being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the People to keep and bear arms, shall not be infringed";
- C. The rights of the people to keep and bear arms are further protected from infringement by State and Local Governments under the Ninth and Tenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States of America as well as Article 1 of the Constitution of the Great State of Oregon;
- D. Article 1, Section 27 of the Constitution of the Great State of Oregon states, "The people shall have the right to bear arms for the defense of themselves, and the State, but the Military shall be kept in strict subordination to the civil power";
- E. Article 1, Section 33 of the Constitution of the Great State of Oregon states, "This enumeration of rights and privileges shall not be construed to impair or deny others retained by the people";
- F. The Supreme Court of the United States of America in District of Columbia v. Heller upheld the individual rights to bear arms as protected by the Second Amendment of the Constitution of the United States of America. Justice Scalia's opinion stated that the Second Amendment protects an individual's right to possess a firearm unconnected with service in a militia, and to use that firearm for traditionally lawful purposes, such as self-defense within the home;
- G. Justice Thomas M. Cooley in the People v. Hurlbut 24 Mich. 44, page 108 (1871) he surmises: "The State may mould local institutions according to its views of policy or expediency: but local government is matter of absolute right; and the state cannot take it away";
- H. The Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America Section 1 it states, "No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws";

- I. There is a right to be free from the commandeering hand of government that has been most notably recognized by the United States Supreme Court in Printz v. United States. The Court held: ‘The Federal Government may neither issue directives requiring the States to address particular problems, nor command the States’ officers, or those of their political subdivisions, to administer or enforce a federal regulatory program. The anticommandeering principles recognized by the U.S. Supreme Court in Printz v. United States are predicated upon the advice of James Madison, who in Federalist #46 advised “a refusal to cooperate with officers of the Union” in response to either unconstitutional federal measures or constitutional but unpopular federal measures;
- J. It should be self-evident from the compounding evidence that the right to keep and bear arms is a fundamental individual right that shall not be infringed and all local, state, and federal acts, laws, orders, rules or regulations regarding firearms, firearm accessories, and ammunition are a violation of the Second Amendment;
- K. Local governments have the legal authority to refuse to cooperate with state and federal firearm laws that violate those rights and to proclaim a Second Amendment Sanctuary for law-abiding citizens in their cities and counties;
- L. Therefore, through the enactment of this document Coos County Oregon is hereby a Second Amendment Sanctuary County;

SECTION 3. PROHIBITIONS

- A. Other than in compliance with an order of a District or Circuit court, and notwithstanding any other law, regulation, rule or order to the contrary, no agent, department, employee or official of Coos County, a political subdivision of the State of Oregon, while acting in their official capacity, shall:

- b. This ordinance is not intended to prohibit or affect in any way the prosecution of any crime for which the use of, or possession of, a firearm is an aggregating factor or enhancement to an otherwise independent crime.
