BALLOT TITLE: AMENDING CITY CHARTER RESIDENCY REQUIREMENTS OF ELECTED OFFICIALS.

QUESTION: Should Charter be amended allowing elected officials, to include school district residents who own property within the city limits?

SUMMARY: The City Charter sets out the qualifications for holding elective office, currently Mayor and Council, as being those persons who reside in the City limits for twelve months prior to the election and maintain that residency through his/her term in office. This amendment would allow those individuals who own real property within the City during the twelve months immediately preceding the election as indicated by the Coos County Tax and Assessment records, who maintains his or her ownership of that property during the term of office, and who resides within the Bandon School District during the term of office, to be eligible for an elective office. It does not change the law providing that only City residents may vote in an election for City elected officials.
